

Mary Jean Hale

October 25, 1966 - December 10, 2013

BEDFORD -- Mary Jean Hale, 47, passed away peacefully Tuesday, Dec. 10, 2013.

Funeral: 10 a.m. Friday, Legacy Church of Christ, 8801 Mid Cities Blvd., North Richland Hills. Interment: Lawnview Cemetery, Cordell, Okla. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home.

Jeannie, the daughter of John and Mary Foster, was born Oct. 25, 1966, in Greeley, Colo. She was a graduate of Azle High School and attended Tarrant County College. Jeannie was full of love; she loved children and any of God's creatures. She would help people to a fault. She was preceded in death by her father, John Paul Foster, and brother, Jay Lloyd Foster.

Eighteen years ago she was diagnosed with a degenerative genetic disease which resulted in her early return to the Lord. We celebrate the gift of her life to us while we deeply mourn our loss.

Survivors: Her husband, Brandon Pryde Hale; daughter, Kathryn Ann Klemens Nelson and husband, Eric, and their 3-month-old son, Keegan John Nelson; son, Brandon Pryde Hale; mother, Mary Foster; brothers, Paul David Foster, Brian Douglas Foster; sister, Pamela Marie Ford; father-in-law, John "Bud" Hale; aunts and uncle, Mavis Foster Ryan, Joseph and Rita Doussard; nieces and nephews; numerous "heart children and friends," you know who you are.
