“ oh johnny, where do i start? me and you have WAY too many memories to be said as we shared through out the whole 17 years of your life. I am very blessed that i got to be a huge part in your life and that you outta every other man are my brother, i could never ask for anyone other than you, you exceeded at being the best brother your could. i know your soul is still right here with us in the air, but i miss your BLUEtiful smile and you never cared how made i got at you, you were always still sooo nice to me and did whatever i told you to do for me. I REALLY REALLY miss you bro and its just getting tougher and tougher. i passed by meadow creek the other day to see that they are having breakfast with santa, you started comming to that with me before you even went there. there whole staff knew my lil bro better than they knew me i think cuz they always talked about how cute and how good you were. i look through the pictures of when i was in the hospital after i had shayla you came up there and when you held her, you could tell yall had that instant band just by you looking into her eyes and her looking into your eyes. she misses you so much too "uncle johnny", isnt it cute the way she says it! i wish i could keep going and going but there is not enough space but you already know how i truely feel. there are tears dripping down my face onto the keyboard! i love you soooo much and miss you that much more! This happened to the wrong person. i am soooo happy i got to spend a awesome 17 years with you just wish it could have been longer!!! i LOVE YOU young scratch!!! from your big sis

“ Where to begin I have so many memories of Vinnie and Johnny together, trying to pick just one is way to hard. I think the things I remember the most is that amazing smile and the fact the Johnny was so polite. Trying to seperate Vinnie and Johnny was impossible during the summers. Johnny you are so missed and will always be in our hearts.

“ My son is a friend of Johnny's. Johnny was always one of the polite kids with a smile that I really liked. If I was yelling at the bunch as a whole I always felt bad when Johnny was there because he looked so innocent. My heart truly goes out to all of you..... This could have been my son. I pray for peace in your hearts. Losing Johnny is a HUGE loss. I hope his friends honor him by waking up and seeing what can happen when you get involved in things you should not. I pray for Johnny that he is at total and complete peace. Johnny has many friends and he is very loved. I see that in my son's eyes. May God's arms be wrapped around all of you and He catch every tear that falls to shower Johnny with in heaven.
