

Daniel Koenig

May 2, 1978 - October 6, 2009

BEDFORD -- Daniel B. Koenig, 31, passed away Tuesday, Oct. 6, 2009, in Dallas.

Memorial service: 2 p.m. Saturday at St. Philip Presbyterian Church in Hurst.

Memorials: In lieu of flowers, donations to Daniel's children's college fund at St. Philip's Presbyterian Church are requested. Daniel was a man of God with the biggest, loving heart a person could possess. He enjoyed writing, music, sports (especially the New York Yankees) and being a kid at heart. He was always looking out for his family, friends and anyone that needed his hand. There was no one in the world he loved more than his heart, Sylvia Mugica, his fiancée. He is now with God and will always be in our hearts.

Survivors: We would like to celebrate the life of Daniel Barkley Koenig, the loving father of Satchel Denby and Tallulah Everly; the son of Donna and Steven Koenig; grandson of William E. "Bill" Barkley Jr.; and the older brother of Emily R. Lambert.

Comments

“ I am not known to the family or friends. However, I witnessed the aftermath of the morning of October 6 on my way to work. Everyday I pass by and I see the cross with his name on my way home. I just want the family to know that you have been in my prayers. God bless.

“ Donna, Steven, and Emily: My heart is saddened of Daniel's sudden passing. David will always cherish his friendship and will miss him very much. I have sweet memories of Daniel that I will cherish in my heart. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you for God's peace and comfort during this difficult time.
