“ I had to light a candle for you Scott because you certainly won't be forgotten. Although your time here with us was short - you have left a lifetime of memories. I know everyone in heaven will be enjoying your laughter. Till we meet again.....

“ Our memories of Scott goes all the way back when we were first introduced to him in the 90's, he made a special connection to us then and we became very good friends, there was never a dull minute when he was around he always brought laughter to us some way or another, we will always remember how he was so 100% real with you and he told you exactly how he felt about any situation. May you find Peace and Comfort my dear friend and Rest be in your Soul.....
