“ John was one of the most caring guys I know I worked with him for years at lowes and he was always helping me when I needed help with anything. Him and I loved picking on people that would hate on the cowboys. John and I loved Dallas football nights we would always try getting off early to get home for the game lol. If we had to stay at work then we would call each other back and forth trying to figure out what the score was lol. I cant believe he is gone. He will be missed by so many people. He truly was a man of god and cared for all. I miss you already John the last time I saw you a few weeks ago I wish I knew it would of been the last but I guess thats life. We love you John!! I hope to see you one day in heaven!!!
