“ My prayers are with your entire family. I knew Kari in Carlsbad, I cherish the memories of babysitting her as well as helping her with cheerleading tryouts. I know she grew into a fabulous adult and her light will be missed. I say a prayer daily for the entire Heil/Firestone family. May God bless you during this very difficult time.

“ I was so saddened to hear about the death of Kari. I remember her beautiful smile and her outgoing personality. I had the pleasure of growing up with her at Sunset Church of Christ. I would like to extend my sincere sympathy to her family and had I known ahead of time, I would have definitely come to the service. Please let me know if there is anything that I can do. My thoughts and prayers will continue to be with Ronnie and Jill and the rest of the family, including her precious children.

Love Always,

“ Like so many others we feel like we have lost a daughter. We all raised our children together and Kari was like one of our own. She had Such a beautiful voice and so much vitality.
we will always remember a sweet angel, forever beaming whenever she came into a room. And now that beauty and vitality lives through her precious babies. Thank you Kari for letting us share a part of your life. We had alot of good years watching you grow and turn into a beautiful loving wife and mother. I know you are now probably singing with God in his glorius choir and though we will miss you terribly, we have the hope of seeing you again in Heaven. We love you Kari,

“ I was so saddened to hear of Kari's passing, and my thoughts and prayers are with her family as you all struggle with the pain of her loss. The Firestone girls were the first kids I ever babysat, way back when you lived in Lovington. I have to say they they were always my favorites! Kari was such a cute, sweet little girl! My most prominent memory of Kari is how much she loved to play Candyland! She would always get it out the second Ronnie and Jill left, and would play as long as I would keep on playing. To this day, I can't play that game with my own kids without thinking of Kari!

Lisa (Fitts) Powell - January 20, 2006 at 11:52 AM

“ I can't quit thinking of Kari since I heard the tragic news of her loss. I think of her as a little girl at church. I admired her so much. Kari's outer beauty was the first thing you noticed, but it was her sweet smile and her wonderful personality that made me look up to her so much. I wanted to be like her. Kari was just enough older than me that we didn't really know each other well, but I looked up to her as a role model. My heart aches for the family that she left behind. You have already been and will continue to be in my prayers.

“ This world, however beautiful, was never meant to be the place we would call home for eternity. He has built a mansion where His children will abide, where you are free from pain and suffering, forever at His side. And even when our choices, are less than He would ask, He knows when human courage is unequal to the task. We have a loving Father who knows what is best, and He lifts us to a place of peace and rest. We cannot judge what happens, though tears and questions start, We only see what's visible--God sees into your heart. There are so many things we cannot explain, and it breaks our Father's heart to see His children's pain, so in loving arms He has bore you to a quiet place apart, where He mends your wounded spirit, and heals your broken heart. And though you have left your earthly dwelling, and left our present sight, we will all be together, someday, in our Father's home above, a better world of majesty and light, where we will thank Him for His mercy, and praise Him for His Love.

“ Our daughters, Stephanie and Jessica, thought the world of Kari. They loved to go to Choir shows to watch her perform in Show Choir. They signed up for Cheerleading clinics because Kari was a cheerleader. She babysat for us some when we first moved to Carlsbad in 1989. We went to ACU to watch her in Sing Song. Our family is saddened by the loss of Kari. Mark, Linda, Jessica & Craig Schinnerer; Stephanie & Fred Ybaben
