“ We will always hold dear our memories of two little red-haired, freckle-faced boys, our twin godsons, who grew into such fine young men. Our hearts are heavy for the terrible loss of Ken -- especially for Chris and for Brenda, but of course for the whole family. God bless you all.

“ My Dearest Ken,
My heart is so heavy. We miss you so much. Nathan asks everyday if you are watching him and I tell him that every moment of everyday you are looking over us all.
I thank God that I had 15 years with you and through you I met Chris.
You were always more than just my brother-in-law. You were my friend and I will always love you. I wish I had only said it more, but I always thought you knew. I promise to spend the rest of my time here looking out for our family. I will watch over Brenda and Rochelle and I will protect them. Katelyn and Nathan will always know how much you loved them and I will do my best to help Chris through this horrific time.
Until we meet again my friend....

“ Ken, you'll never know how much you meant to me. You and Chris are the sons I never had. My heart aches to see your dad and how he already misses you so very, very much. His two boys are his world.... last night he sat out side and smoked his pipe and thought of you, while watching the stars. I could tell when he came back in how very sad is truly is. You'll be in my thoughts always. I will remember the goods times and smile. love cheryl “ Ken, Chris and I went to highschool for a few years at Edison. I shared a class and many laughs with Ken. It was nice finding him on myspace earlier last year.

My deepest heart felt sympathies to Chris, and all of Ken's family. God Bless.
