

Linda Simmons

August 11, 1950 - November 27, 2009

MANSFIELD -- Linda Susan Simmons, 59, peacefully passed onto the next life Friday, Nov. 27, 2009, due to a cerebral hemorrhage. Funeral: 2 p.m. Wednesday in the chapel of Blessing Funeral Home in Mansfield. Interment Mansfield Cemetery. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday. She was born Aug. 11, 1950, in Fort Worth. She graduated from Mansfield High School in 1968 and attended Tarrant County College. Linda worked at Spartech Plastics for 25 years as a customer service supervisor. Linda was admired, respected and loved by her colleagues and her customers. Linda will be primarily remembered for her love and devotion to her children and her husband. She was a quiet, unassuming person who worked behind the scenes; she was a doer and a go-getter. She always got the job done, no matter whether it was business or personal. She was preceded in death by her brother, Richard Ervin, of Arkansas. Survivors: Husband, Wayne Simmons; children, Wendy Miller and spouse, Ray, and Jason Simmons and spouse, Mendy; grandchildren, Ashley Miller and Caleb Simmons; parents, Earl and Dora Lee Ervin of Mansfield; sister, Connie Givens of Dallas; sister-in-law, Margaret Ervin of Arkansas; mother-in-law, Peggy Simmons of Fort Worth; and many nieces and nephews and extended family members who loved her dearly.

“ I had not spent much time around Linda for years, but my memories of her are of a sweet soft spoken woman who was very caring. May the Lord wrap his loving arms around the whole family and comfort you all.

“ I am so sorry for your loss.
My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
It is difficult losing someone so suddenly.

Your Friend,

Lana

“ Things I know about by Aunt.

My Aunt Linda liked to: hum, make norwegian cookies, drink mimosas, listen to Celine Dion sing, travel, laugh and spend time with family and friends.

My Aunt Linda is Sunshine and her light will be greatly missed here on Earth, but will be shining down on us from above for ever more.

“ To Wayne, Wendy, Jason and all the rest of the family; wish so much that we could be there with you during this time of great sorrow. Please know that we have you in our thought & prayers and we love you so very much.
May God bless you with comfort, strength and peace as you go through this time.

I can't find the words to fully express how we feel, we all love Linda and her great smile, concern and love for her family.

Love you all soooooo verrrrrry much, Joy Burke and all the family
