

Marvin Eugene

April 3, 1946 - December 25, 2007

MANSFIELD -- Marvin E. "Gene" May, 61, a ceramic tile setter, passed away Tuesday, Dec. 25, 2007, after a courageous battle with colon cancer. Funeral: 1 p.m. Saturday at Blessing Funeral Home. Interment: Emerald Hills Memorial Park, Kennedale. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Friday at Blessing Funeral Home. Gene was born April 3, 1946, in Waterloo, Ala. He was a graduate of Polytechnic High School in Fort Worth. Gene served in the U.S. Army. He married the love of his life, Glenda Faye Stringer. Gene was a member of Lakeside Church of Christ and New Hope Baptist Church. Faye and the kids would like to thank all the wonderful family and friends who helped them through this difficult time. Also, a special thanks to Aimee with Season's Hospice and to Dr. Davis and the staff at Texas Oncology. He was preceded in death by his parents, Marvin W. and Mary Ann May; and brother, Taylor May. Survivors: His devoted and beloved wife of 40 years, Faye; children, Kim Skelton and husband, Eddie, Wayne May and wife, Malissa, Chris May, and Misty Adams and husband, Tony; eight precious grandchildren; one great-grandson; sisters, Darlene Young, Betty Reynolds and husband, Bill; sister-in-law, Pat May; brother-in-law, Clyde Stringer and wife, Billie; numerous special nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Comments

“ I'll surely miss, Uncle Gene, he was a very honest and caring man.
The world will be at loss without him and his art of stone and tile setting. Although his memory will always live on through the many projects he created in his lifetime.
I shall keep his family in my prayers,
James Glasscock

James Glasscock - December 27, 2007 at 08:27 AM