“ Robby and I had gone to visit Grandma and we took along several pictures to show her of us and Ryan. We wanted to leave one for her and she was very sure of where she wanted it hung, so everytime Robby would point to a place she'd say no and point to exactly where it was to go. She was such a very sweet lady, I just wish I could've known her longer, but I sure did love her.

“ She was always a part of my life and then became my Mother-In-Law, she was the best one anyone could have had. She was a good and loving person and loved her Grandkids. She is a shining star in Gods heaven now. She will be missed.
My love,
Barbara
