“ Shauna was always the one to talk to you even if no one else would. She cared more about others than herself, and loved to have fun. We will see her again one day, because I know where she is. She will live on in our memories and our hearts forever. We love you, Shauna.

“ Shauna was always the most honest and caring person, even to the ones that were mean to her, but she never listened to people talking badly about her friends and family. If anything those were the times she got into fights the most, defending the honor of her loved ones. She was a true fighter until the end, but loved like no other. I (we all) love Shauna as a brother (or sister) would love a sister. To Shauna- I know you are gone now for serving your purpose, and you leave behind you many friends that love you very much. I will miss you terribly, but look back and remember all the good times we had. Stay with us in Spirit girl! We'll meet again. God bless you Shauna, friends, and family.

“ Shauna was one of the first people I met after my move to Huntsville. I was fortunate enough to get to know her and her family well, there was never a more honest upfront person i'd ever known, you always knew where you stood with her. If you were lucky enough to be one of her close friends you knew it, and if you weren't, well.. you'd know that too.

To say that the world will be less of a better place w/out her is a understatement.

She is loved and will be missed by all of us knew her best.

“ I'm proud to call her my friend. She was such a warm and caring individual who put others before herself. I hate that we live in a world where my friends go away so suddenly. All we can do is never forget her. I love you, girl.

“ shauna, i promise to never let your memory fade in my heart. I promise to laugh when i think of you. I promise to rock a lil' harder for you. I promise to never forget the day i met you and Trav. I promise to never forget eating mac & cheese on the front porch, out of the pan it was cooked in. I promise to never lose touch with your family. I promise to drink one more for you even when i know i've allready had too much. I promise to attempt to be as strong as you. I promise to share the memories i have of you with C.J. someday. I promise to tell him what a rockin' lady you were. I promise to let him know every good and bad time we had together. I promise to tell him how crazy you were about him. I promise i'll see you again oneday. I promise the truth of our friendship. I promise to never forget.
