“ Terrie,
I'll always remember you as a fun loving, free spirited friend. It was clear to anyone who was paying attention that being the best mother you could be was your top priority and I always admired you for that. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Dear Cory and Jenny,
Words can't describe how sorry that I'm for the loss of yall's mom. She was a beautiful lady with a beautiful spirit. I will miss all those times as we grew up and my parents hung out with yall's mom. I know my mother thought very highly of yall's mom. I just want you guys to know that I'm here for yall's. I know that she is in a better place with no pain just having a good ole time with my mother. Call me anytime @ 903-641-9568.

“ Jenny and Corey your mom loved you so much, she always talked about you both...
God Bless, Rhonda

Terrie, miss the way you used to make us all laugh and made everything worth while. For the times
I was lost, you were always there to lift me up.
You knew when I was up or down, you showed you
Cared in so many ways and you never let me down.

Terrie had strength that couldn't be bought while others would fall, she stayed strong and fought.

If she was suffering, nobody would know.

Well years passed, and minutes flew her time was getting shorter, and nobody knew...

Well one day, God asked her to go get her wings
And join him in paradise doing heavenly things.
