“ I was privileged enough to have lived next door to Melford and Joyce on Perkins Road for a number of years.

We talked over the fence almost daily when he would let his dogs outside.

He was full of wisdom and had a great sense of humor.

One summer, he helped me build a well house for my outdoor well..we had a blast and a few busted knuckles before we finished it.

He always seemed to have a cup of coffee in his hand and sometimes 2 cups if he knew I was outside.

I'll always remember him as a friend and a great neighbor.

My condolences to his family.
