

Adam Hull

September 1, 1985 - July 18, 2009

Memorials: Memorials may be made to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

Adam, the son of Gregory and Kathleen Kotsios Hull, was born Sept. 1, 1985, in North Richland Hills. He attended Haltom High School, Tarrant County College and the University of Houston. He was an avid musician who enjoyed reading, politics and history. He loved sports and was a champion for the Dallas Cowboys and Texas Rangers. For the last three years, Adam courageously battled leukemia. During this time he became close to the team of doctors and professionals who treated him. He was especially appreciative of the support from his family and friends.

Survivors: In addition to his parents, Greg and Kathy, Adam is survived by his brother, Mark Christopher Hull; sister, Kara Marie Hull; grandfather, Christopher J. Kotsios Sr.; and sweetheart, Liz Leal.

Tribute Wall

DR

“ *Adam was such a special person. Always hopeful, kind and upbeat.
I am so grateful to have been able to know such a special person.*

Denise Paletti, RN - August 04, 2009 at 02:36 AM