

Adolph Giacomarro

June 18, 1931 - January 8, 2007

Jack was born June 18, 1931, in Newark, N.J. He served in and retired from the U.S. Air Force. He later served as parks superintendent for the city of North Richland Hills. He also served as a deacon at the Birdville Church of Christ, where he was a member for many years. He was a beloved husband, father, grandfather and brother of Christ. Survivors: wife, Sylvia, of Richland Hills; son, Joey, of Grapevine; daughter, Gina, of Richland Hills; grandsons, Keller and wife, Chione, of Irving, Garin and Payton of Grapevine; sisters, Jean Ringwood, Rose Bonhorst; and brother, Jerry Giacomarra, all of New Jersey.