

Amy Fletcher

March 11, 1968 - May 24, 2009

HASLET -- Amy Lockhart Fletcher passed away peacefully Sunday, May 24, 2009, at home.

Funeral: 10 a.m. Wednesday at Glenview Baptist Church, 4805 NE Loop 820, Fort Worth. Interment: Mount Olivet Cemetery. Visitation: The family will receive friends 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Lucas Funeral Home, 1321 Precinct Line Road, Hurst.

Amy was the regional manager of education and sales for Zotos International. Amy loved to travel, shop and was gifted at home decorating. She loved her work and loved to play. You could always count on Amy's wit and humor to liven up a room. Amy knew a little bit about lots of things. You always wanted her on your side in Trivial Pursuit. She said this was because her Daddy made her watch "Channel 13" from a very early age.

Amy was preceded in death by brother, Jim Lockhart; grandparents, Jack and Dorothy Elliott; and father-in-law, Philip Fletcher.

Survivors: Her husband and love of her life, Steve Fletcher; her Westies, Alex and Andre; her parents, James and Barbara Lockhart; and a large extended family.
