

Anita Bussey

January 2, 1920 - October 23, 2008

Anita was born Jan. 2, 1920, in Fort Worth to Haly and Gladys Parchman. She graduated from Birdville High School in 1936. She attended Texas Wesleyan College and attended and graduated from North Texas Teachers College with a bachelor of music in music education. Anita taught music in school in Nacogdoches. During World War II she worked at Consolidated Aircraft. She was the organist at Midway Baptist Church and in the music ministry of Haltom Road Baptist Church.

Anita was preceded in death by her parents, Haly and Gladys Parchman.

Survivors: Husband of 65 years, Julius Bussey, who was formerly associated with Birdville Independent School District; son, Bill Bussey and wife, Ginger, of Pflugerville; daughters, Judy Weiner and husband, Larry, of Castle Rock, Colo., Janey Gill and husband, Byron, of Marietta, Ga., Gay McCallum and husband, Chris, of Denton and Kim Kearney and husband Sam of Ovilla; brother, Stanley Parchman and wife, Vontilla, of Roanoke; sister, Gayle Guenther of Granbury; 12 grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

KJ

“ Anita was a wonderful and caring person. We will miss listening to the stories about her childhood, motherhood, being a grandparent, travels and garden club. I will miss having a cup of Kava and all the wonderful advice that she has giving me throughout the years. May the Lord be with her now and with each and everyone one of her family members. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

Keith and Shondi Jesseph - October 26, 2008 at 01:02 PM

DH

“ Anita was a wonderful, loving, talented Christian lady who faithfully used her talents for the Lord. She was our accompaniest for the Senior Adult Choir at the First Baptist Church, Bowie, Tx. It was always a great joy for us to spend time with Anita and Julius.

Dick & Pat Hennings - October 25, 2008 at 11:41 PM