

Anna Tarlton

October 25, 1936 - March 11, 2012

Slay Memorial Funeral Center

Aubrey, Texas

Anna Lou Tarlton passed away at Baylor Hospital in Fort Worth, Sunday, March 11, 2012. She was 75. Anna was born October 25, 1936 in Gainesville, TX to Erskin and Millie Pierce Ward. She was a homemaker.

Anna is survived by her daughter Deborah Tarlton of Bedford, one son, Barry Tarlton of the Austin area, one granddaughter, Emily Labig, and one sister, Frankie Phillips.

Visitation will be Thursday, March 15, 2012 beginning at 11:00 A.M. at Slay Memorial Funeral Chapel. Services will follow at 1:00P.M. Dr. Raymond Johns of Meadow Creek Church will officiate. Burial will be at Good Hope Cemetery near Prosper.

Services are under the direction of Stephen Howard and the staff at Slay Memorial Funeral Center in Aubrey

Tribute Wall

VP

“ Anna Lou was without a doubt one of the sweetest, most good hearted person I have ever known. I have known her since I was a child when we lived across the street in Garland, and Deborah and I became friends. I feel priveledged to have called her my friend and she will be very missed. Anna Lou was the best and I loved her dearly.

Vannette Pollinzi - March 14, 2012 at 03:37 PM

VT

“ Aunt Anna Lou was always so sweet. She will be greatly missed.

Veronica Tarleton - March 13, 2012 at 11:15 AM