

Annabelle Webb

February 11, 1922 - January 16, 2011

WESTLAKE -- Mrs. Annabelle Fralick Webb, 88, passed away Sunday, January 16, 2011, after a lengthy battle with Alzheimer's disease.

Services: Funeral service will be 3:30 p.m. Saturday, January 22, at Lucas Funeral Home, 137 E. Hill St., Keller. Entombment: Following the funeral service, Annabelle will be entombed in Bluebonnet Hills Mausoleum, Colleyville. Visitation: The family will receive friends at Lucas Keller Funeral Home at 3 p.m. before the service. Mrs. Webb was born to Lora Mundy and Clinton Fralick in Colfax, Louisiana. She was a resident of Mimosa Manor in Keller after moving from Monroe, Louisiana. A world traveler, Mrs. Webb accompanied her husband, Dallas Webb Jr., during his many years of naval service. Remembered as a Godly wife, mother and friend, Mrs. Webb reared her family in faith and with great love to the Lord. As a part of her Christian living, Mrs. Webb gladly served as a member of the Gideon Auxiliary, supporting their mission to spread the Word of God. She lived by example for her children and grandchildren in both word and deed. Her love for her family was so powerful she never forgot those close to her despite the challenges of her affliction. Annabelle was preceded in death by her parents; her son, Dallas Wayne Webb; and brother, Carroll Fralick.

Survivors: Annabelle is survived by her husband of 68 years, Dallas Webb Jr.; two sons, Gene Lamar Webb of Dallas, and Dr. George Wyatt Webb and wife, Allison Shepherd Webb of Westlake; daughter-in-law, Patricia McErlane Webb; sister, Loretta Mize and husband, Larry and eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
