

BARBARA CHINWORTH

September 24, 1960 - March 21, 2007

FORT WORTH -- Barbara Kissman Chinworth, 46, a loving wife and mother, died Wednesday, March 21, 2007. Memorial service: 2 p.m. Tuesday at University United Methodist Church, W. Berry Street at McCart Avenue. The Rev. Andrew Decker will officiate. Memorials: Consideration of contributions, in lieu of flowers, for "Funds for Dance Competitions," in care of Bruce Lea Dance Factory, 5050 Trail Lake Drive, Fort Worth 76133, or a charity of one's choice in memory of Barbara is suggested. A native of Michigan City, Ind., Barbara Jean was born Sept. 24, 1960, the daughter of Gordon and Marlene Grayson Kissman. She was raised in New Buffalo, Mich., where she graduated from high school before attending Ferris State University in Big Rapids, Mich. Barbara had been a resident of Fort Worth since 1982 where she was an associate of Tandy Corporation. Following the birth of her daughter, Megan, Barbara devoted herself to the needs of her family and her daughter's dance activities. Survivors: In addition to her daughter, Barbara is survived by her parents, Gordon and Marlene Grayson Kissman; sisters, Krindy Kissman, Rebecca Kissman Umphrey and her husband, Tom, and Karen Kissman Lord and her husband, Mike; 10 nieces and nephews; and a great-niece, all of New Buffalo, Mich. Robertson Mueller Harper Funerals & Cremations 1500 Eighth Ave., 817-924-4233