

BARRY TAUROG

October 23, 1939 - February 14, 2007

FORT WORTH -- Barry Taurog, 67, died peacefully Wednesday morning, Feb. 14, 2007, after a short illness borne with great courage, surrounded by his devoted family. ♂ Funeral: 12:30 p.m. Sunday in the sanctuary at Beth-El Congregation, 4900 Briarhaven Rd. Burial: Barry will be laid to rest in the Beth-El Section of Greenwood Memorial Park. Minyan services will be held at the residence Sunday, beginning at 5 p.m. ♂ Memorials: Consideration of contributions, in lieu of flowers, to the SPCA, the American Cancer Society or Beth-El Congregation in memory of Barry is suggested. ♂ A native of Boksburg, Johannesburg, South Africa, Barry was born Oct. 23, 1939, the son of Leonard B. and Leah Melman Taurog. He and his family moved to Fort Worth in 1980. ♂ Barry was a loving husband and a devoted father. His religious beliefs found him a member of the Chevra Kadisha Committee of Congregation Ahavath Sholom, performing the Tahara, the ritual washing of the dead. ♂ Survivors: Wife, Lynn Lawrence Taurog; children, Lisa, Caryn and Marc Taurog; and brothers, Ronnie Taurog and his wife, Barbara, and Alan Taurog and his wife, June, and their children.
