“ I am very lucky to have had this wonderful woman as my mother. She was the kindest person I have ever known. She was always there when I needed her and always willing to listen and offer any support when needed. She was truly my best friend and living without her will be very difficult.

“ Billie's dancing in heaven with Morris Dean and Billie Mae as well as others who have preceded her in death. I cannot deeply grieve her home going because now she's healthy with no breathing problems and can eat all she wants and it won't matter.

I will miss her terribly, terribly. We had some great times together but I would not have her stay any longer in the condition in which she has lived for the last few years.

“ Tom: I was so glad to be able to meet your mom. She was definitely a special lady. I know you will miss her spirit, her voice, and her listening ear, as well as the good times just playing cards or sharing your day. The best part is that you'll have good memories. That's what will get you through. I'm glad that your faith is strong and you can rejoice in the fact that she's lovin' where she is now and that she's free from pain. See you at the funeral and get some rest sometime!!
