“ I have so many memories of Pat and Cal. I cannot think of them separately, it was always "Pat and Cal". I loved to visit them in my earlier years - Pat and Cal and the children. Sometimes, my visits might have been overextended, but they made me feel like part of the family. Cal, I love and miss you. Pat, I know you feel lost without Cal, but he will always be with you. I love you.

“ I just wanted to say that we can all imagine where cal is... he showed many of us, including myself, the place he liked best at the controls of his plane.
