

CALVIN WILLIAMS

September 28, 1929 - November 28, 2007

CROWLEY -- Calvin Meredith Williams, 78, a loving, caring husband, father, stepfather and grandfather, died peacefully Wednesday evening, Nov. 28, 2007, of complications from ongoing health issues. Funeral: Services and interment will be held in Aurora, Colo. A memorial service was held Saturday at McKinney Fellowship Bible Church in McKinney. Calvin was born and graduated from high school in Sherman. He entered the U.S. Navy and served as a machinist mate number 1 during the Korean War. After receiving a honorable discharge, he attended technical training and began a career as a machinist. Calvin and Margaret Ann Beaty were married from 1950 until her death in 1994. They resided in Aurora, Colo., where they raised their three sons, Robert, David and Steven. In 2000, he returned to Texas and married Betty Gregory in 2002. She survives him. The couple made their home in Crowley. Mr. Williams was active in his church and community until his health declined. He was an inspiration as he kept his positive attitude even as his health faded. Survivors: In addition to his wife and sons, he is survived by his stepchildren, Deborah Graves, Lisa Perkins, Crystal Hall, Tony Gregory, Jimmy Gregory, Ruthie Wenzel and Stephanie Stanley; eight grandchildren; 11 stepgrandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and seven stepgreat-grandchildren.
