

Carlos Marquez,

October 24, 1995 - October 23, 2011

ARLINGTON -- Carlos Marquez Jr., a student at Mansfield Timberview High School, passed away Sunday, Oct. 23, 2011, one day before his 16th birthday. Prayer service: 1 p.m. Friday at Blessing Funeral Home, Mansfield. Visitation: noon to 8 p.m. Thursday, with a rosary at 7 p.m. Survivors: Parents, Carlos and Andrea Marquez; siblings, Freddy, Bryan and Brianda Marquez.

Tribute Wall

RE

“ My sincere condolences on your loss. I read the article and herad on the news of the tragedy. My sincere prayers and thoughts go out to you and your family and the Timberview wolves. A life cut short but memories will keep him alive and remember God needed him more but I am sure he will be eatching over everyone. God Bless

Renie - November 04, 2011 at 10:21 PM

JH

“ What a wonderful young man Carlos was. We were blessed to have lived across the street from him in Arlington. He was always willing to help when needed and loved playing with the younger kids. He was one of the most respectful young men I have ever met. Such a tragedy that he was taken at such a young age, but we all know God had bigger plans for him in heaven. We will continue to lift the Marquez family up in prayer. Praying for comfort and strength to get you through the days, weeks and months to come.

Joe, Melissa, Alex and Courtney Henson - October 31, 2011 at 02:02 PM

FR

“ To our nephew, lost too soon!

Familia Rivera/Puentes - October 27, 2011 at 10:26 PM

SU

“ My prayers go out to the family of this young man. I'm sure he celebrated his birthday with Jesus and he would not want you all to be sad. My heart goes out to you all at this difficult time. May God keep you all close

Susan - October 26, 2011 at 12:32 PM

MR

“ Carlos, you were an excellent student and a sweet young man. I am thankful for getting to know you a little and to be your mentor in class. You will be missed.

Melissa Rendon - October 26, 2011 at 10:34 AM