

Carol Allen

June 23, 1949 - December 21, 2011

HURST -- Carol Kay Allen, 62, passed away Wednesday, Dec. 21, 2011, at a local health center. Funeral: 1 p.m. Friday in the chapel of Lucas Funeral Home, 1321 Precinct Line Road in Hurst. Interment: Moore Memorial Gardens in Arlington. Carol was preceded in death by her parents, Clarence Allen and Marie McMullan Allen; and her sister, Sharon Qualls. Survivors: Daughter, Mikayla Marie Allen of Hurst; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and extended family.

Tribute Wall

JP

“ Many, many wonderful memories at Faith Temple Baptist Church in Irving, Texas. MiKayla was about 5 and you were so proud of her and we were also. So bright, smart and full of life, just as she is now. Go forward MiKayla knowing that your mother loved you beyond limit, just as your Lord and Savior does.

---

Jim amd Dorothy Pritchett - December 23, 2011 at 11:23 AM

SF

“ Carol, you will be greatly missed by myself and others you came in contact with. You were so contagious to where if a person got to know you well they could never let you go. You cracked me up on a daily basis and I thank you for all the good times we had together. You will not be or cannot be forgotten. For though I know you're not hear with us physically, you are always in our memories and that can never be erased by no means possible. We've been together for a long time, years back and we will always be together as our memories linger on forever and a day. To your baby, Mikala, just remember, your Mom is always with you because God gives his angels charge over you to guard you in all your ways. Jesus hears the prayers of your heart just as clearly as He hears the prayers others are lifting up for you. So for as long as you grieve, may it be a comfort to remember this: The more you need Him, the closer He will be. Love Infinity, Sharon D. Flowers

---

Sharon Flowers - December 23, 2011 at 02:14 AM

SF

“ So many people see in death nothing but a cruel separation from loved ones.

In death there is certainly the very real pain and sorrow of physical separation. But it is equally true that our loved ones remain with us. They don't just go off to some dark and distant place. They simply continue into eternal life. We don't see them because we are still in the darkness of this world. But their spiritual eyes, filled with the light of heaven, are always aware of us as they wait for the day when we shall share their perfect joy. We are born for heaven and we end this life of tears to begin our life of endless happiness, for it is we who are away from home, not they. Death for our loved ones is simply a doorway to their eternal home for they are still with us, lovingly and tenderly waiting for the day, when we, too, will enter the doorway of our eternal home. For a Christian, passing through death is really a birth into a new and better world. Those who are left behind should not grieve as if there were no hope. Life is changed, not taken away because our dear ones live on, in a world beautiful beyond anything that we could ever imagine. With Jesus and Mary, they await the day when they will welcome us with joy. "Do not grieve too much", they say to us. "We are living and are still with you". Even though we have sorrow, there should also be joy that our loved ones have gone home to their Heavenly Father.

In Sympathy and In Everlasting Friendship,

Sharon D. Flowers

Sharon D. Flowers

---

Sharon Flowers - December 23, 2011 at 01:24 AM

EM

“ My favorite memory of Carol was her Ethel Merman "God Bless America" impression. She was an amazing woman, mother and friend. Rest in Peace.

---

Emily McKown-Schingle - December 22, 2011 at 10:42 PM

LA

“ Carol and I were co-workers she was a dear friend.. we would laugh and cut up between calls all day.. I kmpw Carol was a christian and I know she had a reationship with the Lord.. So i am ok with that..y prasyers go out to her baby girl whom she loved dearly I will miss her I thank God that I had a chance to know her

---

Lynette Allen - December 22, 2011 at 06:26 PM

NW

“ Carol,
i miss you dearly! Your sweet smile, ready laugh, your intelligent, precious sense of humor...all of that i will hold close in my memories of you forever ! I admired your awesome Christian love for your beautiful daughter, Mikayla and your generous inclusion of your many friends in your circle of love. I am thrilled to know you counted me in that group.
Further, although you are asleep in Jesus' arms, I know we will see each other again.
So, rest well in His love and peace..I'll see you later !

---

nancy wright - December 22, 2011 at 03:41 PM

CC

“ Carol, you were such a shining light in our lives and always will be. We will miss you dearly, but are grateful you are finally at peace and in no pain. Love you so much my Sissy, you will live in our hearts forever. See you on the porch swing...

---

Cousin Patty & John Judd and Aunt Doris Cook - December 22, 2011 at 03:01 PM