GRAPEVINE -- Carol Ann Hazlett, 63, passed away Monday, Jan. 10, 2011, surrounded by her loving family. Memorial service: 3 p.m. Friday at Lucas Funeral Home, 1321 Precinct Line Road, Hurst. A celebration of her life will be held 4 to 7 p.m. Thursday at the family residence. Carol Ann was born Nov. 3, 1947, in Kansas City, Mo. Her main passions in life were cooking and bowling. Her love of cooking that she shared with Bill was one of her very fondest gifts. Bowling was the other passion in her life as she gave everything to her only son, Tony, so that he could become the best bowler possible. That was her true legacy -- she gave more than she took. Carol was preceded in death by her father, Joseph Clark; and her adoptive father, Lee Clisso and mother, Toni Clisso. Survivors: Her husband of 28 years, Bill; son, Tony Franklin and wife, Genie; granddaughter, Tori Franklin; brothers, Richard Clisso and wife, Sharon, and Ed Clisso and wife, Beverly; sister, Laurie Malone and husband, Craig; father-in-law, Frank Hazlett; and sister-in-law, Beth Wood.
