“Cathy touched my heart and life in many ways, but one in particular stands out to me. A couple of years ago I had surgery on my arm and couldn't plant flowers. We were going to have a party in our back yard, and I had mentioned that I was disappointed that I wouldn't get flowers in before the party. One day my doorbell rang, and it was Cathy with a bunch of begonias. She planted and watered them for me, and all this was in the hot, humid summer. That was sweet and kind enough, but then I found out that she had just come from a chemo treatment herself. I was just floored.

Cathy taught me a lot, and I am so blessed to have had the chance to know her. The best part is I know I'll see her again one day in heaven. Thank You, Lord, for Cathy.

“I always will remember how much this fine lady loved her cats. The photos she took of them displayed her affection and dedication. Her sweet smile will be missed in the "cat family".
