“ Cheryl has always been in my life and I will truly miss everything about her. She fought very hard to make it until her girls were old enough to really know who she was. She never had a negative attitude about her disease and tried to encourage others. She believed God would heal her one way or another - He did by taking her home to be with Him. Someday, as she did, if you know Jesus as your personal savior you will be in heaven with her singing with the angels. She love God, her family and life. I'll miss her. I saw her number in my cell phone a couple of days ago but can't delete it yet...someday maybe. I love you Cheryl and I miss you!

“ Although struggling with breast cancer herself, Cheryl was the 'Good Samaritan' that cared enough to see to it that Joan her next door neighbor at one time was not alone with regard to access to the grocery store, church, etc. Her caring and good nature are remembered as being characteristic of her nature and love for Christ. Her good deeds will be rewarded by her Father in heaven.
