

Clarice Bell

February 28, 1934 - July 22, 2011

Clarice Darline Bell

FORT WORTH -- Clarice Darline Bell entered into the arms of her Savior on Friday, July 22, 2011. Celebration of life: 7 p.m. Thursday at Lucas Funeral Home, 137 E. Hill St., Keller. Visitation: The family will receive friends at 6:30 p.m. Thursday. Clarice was born Feb. 28, 1934, the daughter of Harm and Elsie Schneider. She lived her youth on a wheat farm in Kansas. In high school she won several awards for her soprano voice; her love for music was a source of enjoyment and strength throughout her life. In addition to her singing skills, Clarice excelled in the hobby of arts and crafts, specializing in ceramics and painting. She had great passion for designing, buying and exploring all facets of the jewelry world. She was an avid collector of beautiful things that sparkled and shined as her love for Christ did. As a reliable friend to many people, she was an encourager and source of strength and courage.

She gave her life being a wonderful daughter, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, devoted wife and friend. Clarice was preceded by her husband, Rex Bell; sister, LaDonna Schwein; brother, Leonard Schneider; and brother, Leon Schneider. Survivors: Children, Vicki Reed and husband, Dean, and J.D. McRae and wife, Barbara; grandchildren, Stephanie, Sam, Tyler, Miles and Jacob; three great-grandchildren; and brothers, Ken and Vernie Schneider.
