“ I know that Clifford's family is suffering with this loss. May God bless and comfort you during this time. I started flying aerobatics in 2002 and Cliff was the starter during most of the contests I flew that year. His was a comforting voice to hear before taking off, and he made sure I always had fuel in the airplane, seatbelts and shoulder harnesses buckled, and a sequence card in the holder. Also the pat on the shoulder and a word of praise was always there before takeoff and after you got back down. The aerobatic world lost a great advocate in Cliff and he will be sorely missed. May God Bless you and your loved ones Clifford Hurley!!!

“ I will remember Cliff for his strong sense of humor and his Christian values. We will all miss him terrible. The comfort that we all know and share is that Cliff is now sharing eternity with Jesus and that we will see him again soon.
