“ I remember Danny as a child, He was always kind. Then after he grew up He was a very special person, even though we didn't see each other very much, I still loved him and his Family too. To His Wife and Children May God Bless you and keep you in his care..

“ Since we lived in different states, we did not see each other that much. However, when I did see him, he was always upbeat and smiling. He loved his family very much. We will miss him at family gatherings.
