“ Georgia and family,
May God continue to bless you during this time and the days to come.
I have greatly enjoyed the quiet exchanges of friendship spent with David. He has always been so kind to me. I loved his playful disposition and appreciation of life. Keeping things light and enjoying the small things.
I'll miss seeing him hanging out in the yard.
He's probably already made himself at home in a new driveway, the one in front of his mansion.
Keeping you in my prayers,
Carla
