

David Erwin

September 19, 1927 - July 22, 2006

David "Pat" Erwin, 78, retired after 38 years with the Star Telegram as a data processing manager and pension administrator, died Saturday, July 22, 2006, at a local care center. ♂ Service: Graveside committal will at be 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in Mansfield Cemetery with a memorial service to follow at Oakhurst Presbyterian Church at 11. Visitation: The family will receive friends 5 to 7 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home. ♂ David spent two years in the Army Ordnance Corps. He was an honor graduate from Amon Carter High School and Texas Christian University. He wished to be remembered as an educated man who took care of his mother. He was very fortunate to have the love and support of longtime friend, Natalie Shelton. Along with his mother and sister, Natalie was the light of his life. ♂ Survivors: Sister, Dorothy Erwin Conway; and nephews, Robert Conway and his wife, Harumi, and David Conway and his wife, Julie.

Tribute Wall

CR

“ David had tremendous humor and I found David to be a remarkable man, well read and had traveled places I didn't even know existed. He was kind to all people and had opinions on everything but he never forced his opinions or ideas upon anyone. He was too smart for that! He'll be greatly missed by Carol, my wife, and me. Thank you David for a life well lived...you were a good friend. Cecil

Cecil Ray - July 28, 2006 at 12:16 PM