“ Anyone who knows you will remember the countless hours you spent perfecting your little dirt towns for your Hot Wheels...and I'm pretty sure you were indeed the king of sarcasm and how I loved a good argument with you. I particularly liked the way you never called me by name, always Maggie or Agness...and my least favorite "Maggot Drawers" You will forever be in most of my fondest childhood memories. Rest now in the loving arms of our Lord and Savior Christ Jesus till we meet again...I love you
