“ *It's been a year.I love you so very much. I just can't believe you have been gone this long.
The kids miss you too. John especially. He doesn't say it, but you can see the look and the tears in his eyes And Barry and Don also. The kids were baptized on the 24th. I know you were smiling down on them. Put in a good word for me, because I sure want to see you again some day.*

With so very much love

Your wife, Mrs. Dennis Lawyer

“ I am blessed for having the opportunity to have Dennis as my father-in-law. I always respected and valued his opinion. I am regretful for not staying in closer contact over the years and I have missed him and Susie being a part of my daily life. God speed Dennis.

“ I worked for Dennis for 12 years and deeply liked and respected him. He always treated me fairly and I respected him deeply. When he and my friend Susie got married I was tickled. Dennis provided jobs for many people and cared about all of them. I am grateful that he is no longer suffering and has gone to the place that was prepared for him.
