PS

“ Dorienne! It is a wonderous gift to have known you. You lived your life unapologetically, with great gusto and we are all the richer for it. It has been my privilege to have known you since I was 12 years old and you were living in Farnborough, Kent in the UK. Our paths have crossed numerous times over the years and I will treasure those memories for all time. My sincere sympathy to all members of the family. Dorienne's life is a quilt of richly textured memories. When you wrap yourself in them, knowing that she is now at peace, I hope you find solace. Love and light, Pam
