

Doris Fisher

January 18, 1920 - December 15, 2009

EULESS -- Doris Fisher, who is fondly remembered for her caring and giving nature, died Tuesday, Dec. 15, 2009, of natural causes at her home. Graveside service: 12:30 p.m. Monday in Dallas-Fort Worth National Cemetery. She was born Jan. 18, 1920, in Cairo, Ill. After graduating from Cairo High School, Mrs. Fisher attended nursing school in East St. Louis, where she met her husband of 65 years, Nolan Fisher. As a preacher's wife, Mrs. Fisher was very active and involved in the church. She always cared and worried about others, constantly putting them before herself. Her greatest joy in life was as a wife and a mother. She was preceded in death by two sons, Merle Dean Fisher and Stephen Fisher. Survivors: Her husband, Nolan; daughters, Susan and Janet; five grandchildren; four great-grandchildren.
