

Edna Hopkins

June 27, 1933 - May 31, 2011

Edna Stephens Hopkins, 77, of Grand Prairie, Texas, passed away Monday, May 31, 2011. Edna was born in Pickens, South Carolina. She married Morris A. Hopkins in 1955 and moved to Texas to start a family. Through the years she has been a seamstress, interior decorator for Sears, apartment manager and caregiver for the elderly. She loved to fish, garden, arrow head hunt, play bingo and visit with her friends and family. Survivors include her Sons, Anthony Ray Hopkins, Richard Morris Hopkins; daughter, Sherri Lynn Hopkins Maserang and husband Henry; grandchildren, Samantha & Mackenzie Maserang, Brandi Hopkins, Taylor Gothard. Edna is preceded in death by her husband, Morris A. Hopkins "Hoppy"; son Stephen Matthew Hopkins; parents, Thomas Louie & Jessie Pearl Patterson Stephens; brother, Willie Ray Stephens.

Tribute Wall

LH

“ favorite aunt you will be missed. probably best fishing buddy i ever had. have many great memories of times with you.

Larry hopkins - June 05, 2011 at 12:06 PM

JK

“ Edna was full of life. If you were blue, you wouldn't be for long after she entered the room. Can't believe we have lost our cousin Edna but we are comforted to know there will be a reunion one day. And the Bible tells us we be known there as we were here. Our hearts are breaking with you.

Johnny & Lisa

Johnny & Lisa Kelley - June 03, 2011 at 07:15 PM