

Edna McCall

March 19, 1919 - October 15, 2007

NORTH RICHLAND HILLS -- Edna "Mickie" Riddell Cobb McCall, 88, passed away peacefully Monday, Oct. 15, 2007. Funeral: 1 p.m. Friday at Lucas Funeral Home, 1321 Precinct Line Road, Hurst. Interment: Nashville, Tenn. Mickie was trained as a technical illustrator and retired after 30 years from Lockheed Aircraft Co. in Marietta, Ga. She was loved and respected by her family and her large extended family of Isis and the Star Dancers, H.O. MacAuley Jr., Helen and Clarence Bartlett, Dan and Kathy Bartlett, Peter de Lackner, Lynn McCall, Pat McCall and numerous friends of all ages. Mickie was an accomplished and creative seamstress, and left behind many lovely reminders of her talent. She was continuously educating herself in psychology and religion. She had faith in the potential goodness of humankind. Mickie was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Franklin McCall Jr.; son, Robert Franklin McCall III; parents, William Alexander and Sallie Hutton Cobb; brother, William Fred Cobb; and sister, Elizabeth Cobb English. Survivors: Son, Michael Condray McCall and wife, Angelica; daughters, Nancy McCall de Lackner Bartlett and husband, Del, and Lana McCall MacAuley Cagle and husband, Chris; grandchildren, Kimberly Webster and husband, Dave, Tux MacAuley III and wife, Darlene, Barton de Lackner and wife, Marie, Tara de Lackner Bailey and husband, Scott, Rhonda McCall, Shannon McCall, Wendy McCall Vohn and husband, Jake, Holly McCall; Cathy Cobb, Billy Cobb; Donna English; and 18 great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ A great southern lady. It was my pleasure to know her as a friend and mother-in-law. My condolences to the family. ”

---

Linda McCall - August 30, 2008 at 12:03 PM