“ Mama would have just celebrated her birthday, and once again, we would all have said "39"! I loved to bring my Mom gifts, even if it was a half dead flower, or weed, it was always the best gift ever! There were so many good times that it is hard to write about just one. I know she is watching over me, I feel her presence sometimes, and I know she is here. ”

“ I remember Sis. Ellen fondly as a cheerleader for us kids! She toughed it out at youth camps with us, she cooked for us at school, and many times I knew she was in my corner if I needed her. Those are the things that we never forget. Thank you for all you did, Sis. Ellen!

“ Well just the other day we talked about rounding up those chickens when we were little it was great to hear her laugh especially when she remembered my little brother saying how much fun it was and letting them out of that cage. Her laughter could brighten any room.

“ I remember so many wonderful memories of Sis. Ellen. She was the first at church to know I was pregnant with my first child because she asked me could she ask me a question without hurting my feelings?:)Must have looked fat! Loved that family so much. Ellen, Lois & I were like 3 peas in a pod when we all lived close. May God comfort your hearts at this time. Love to you all!

“ As the picture above is how I remember her. Always with a smile on her face and always loving to every person that came across her path. She will always have a place in my heart and the memories from her being at the School fixing the luches for every one and just being there to help out wherever needed in the school. I will miss her dearly.

Always Serivng HIM!

“ Definitely lots of memories. I guess my last one was of her going up to the "auction" items in the Reunion and looking everything over! She seemed very happy to be there and to be with all the families!

“ Ellen was always smiling and joking around. She loved doing stuff for others and she loved her Saviour. She treated my kids just like her grandkids and me just like her daughter. I still have the blankets she made my kids when they were born. She was a good Christian woman and I know she will enjoy celebrating Jesus birthday with Him.
