“ Gosh, Eric! You had grown into such a handsome young man from the "wirey" younger man I first met several years ago. You were always so humorous - smiling and sharing experiences with such a light heart! You have left behind a family who loved you deeply and will greatly miss you in their lives. May God keep you in His care and help your family through their sorrow and grief.

ME

“ I met Eric when he was about 7 years old. We knew his family and I heard about his skateboarding skill and various scrapes he got into. But I finally got to know him better in the last year when he came to work for us. He was a hard worker but more than that he was a caring human being who got along with all his fellow employees, shared a laugh when possible, and was willing to try whatever you asked. He is missed.
