“ I knew Eric in High School. We both struggled through and enjoyed English Literature, Senior Year. I was just thinking of him, and wondering what became of him. I looked him up to find that he had passed away. I pray for his kids and his wife, as well as his family. I cannot think what they have been through. I pray for them, for hope, for assurance, for faith, and for peace.

“ Gansky Family, My prayers and thoughts are with you all. Stacy I met Eric in San Marcos, and worked with him at "Cafe on the Square". He was a great guy, the last time we spoke you all were in Houston, we lost contact and i kept trying to locate you all. God Bless you and your family, i know i have been Blessed to have met Eric and always kept him in my thoughts, the impression he made goes on and on....
