

Ethel King

January 28, 1920 - January 4, 2009

Dollie was born Ethel Mae Stepp on Nov. 28, 1920, in Quanah to J.B. and Della Lucinda Conley Stepp. Dollie and her husband, Douglas, were in business for 38 years. They enjoyed traveling, loved to golf and enjoyed water skiing, dinners and time with her family. She lived her faith and was a lady at all times.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Douglas King. Dollie was reunited with the love of her life on the date of their wedding anniversary. Survivors: Daughter, Darlene Stark and husband, Tom, of Mansfield; sister, Ruth McMinn of Childress; grandchildren, Shannon Winans of Fort Worth and Brad Fowler and wife, Teresa, of Grapevine; great-grandchildren, Josh Snow and wife, Stephanie, Jeffery Bell, Loren Capers and husband, James, and Taryn Fowler; great-great-grandchildren, Layke and Layla Snow and Collton Capers; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorials: Friends who desire are invited to honor her memory with contributions in her name to Community Hospice, 6100 Western Place, Suite 500, Fort Worth, Texas 76107.
