“ Mr. Beasley was the first face I saw every Sunday morning when I entered Central Baptist church. He always greeted me with a hug and a sweet "how are you girl" and a smile. He knew my dad at General Motors. I loved him like a father and i will miss him so very much. My thoughts and prayers are will you all. i know he will greet me in Heaven with that same smile and hug!

“ My neighbors & friends are very dear to me.They are always there where there is a need.Bro.Beasley was that kind of neighbor & Friend.I grew up next door.I attended the same church where he stood at the door ready to shake hands.We sang hymns together.As i have gotten older I come to realize how very precious that man has been to me waving over the fence seeing him on Sunday morning.Now he has gone on to glory & I know that someday he will be there to greet me when I get to glory.Mr & Mrs Beasley will always hold a special place in my heart.
