“ Rick and I were good friends in college. After we finished school, we were saved within months of each other in different parts of the world. I had the privilege of being involved in Rick and Kathie's wedding. Rick was in our wedding. As young families, we spent time together in the Rockies. We are deeply saddened by the loss of Rick, but, comforted in knowing his eternal peace is secure. Our prayers are with the Dargis family. Love, Jim and Karen Morgan

“ Rick, you were our beloved friend and we loved you so much! There is not word to express our sorrow and how much we will miss you. The only solace is that we know that you are with your beloved Savior, Jesus Christ and that pain is not part of your life anymore.

“ Rick was in AFROTC with me at SIU, one of my good friends in college and the best man at our wedding in 1971. When I was flying for Eastern Airlines, we crossed paths in Los Angeles, CA on a street corner. What a surprise! With deepest sympathy! In Christ's Love,
