

Garland Ward

March 23, 1937 - March 8, 2006

MANSFIELD -- Ed Ward, 68, a crew chief for American Airlines, died Wednesday, March 8, 2006, at his residence. ♂??? Funeral: 10 a.m. Monday at St. John Lutheran Church in Mansfield. Burial: Noon Monday in D/FW National Cemetery. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday at Blessing Funeral Home. ♂??? Memorials: In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials be made to St. John Lutheran Church. ♂??? Ed was born March 23, 1937, in Shoals, W.Va., the son of Brady and Sadie Mullins Ward. He was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force and was married to Mavis Jean Freeman. Mr. Ward was preceded in death by a son, Randy Lee Ward; father, Brady; and sister, Frances Lucas. ♂??? Survivors: Wife, Mavis Ward of Mansfield; children, Barbara Ward Taylor of Burleson, Steven Ward of Arlington and Tamara Ward of Denver, Colo.; daughter-in-law, Juliet Ward of Thornton, Colo.; grandchildren, Randy Ward Jr., Christopher and Heather Satterfield, and Michael Ward; mother, Sadie Ward of Ceredo, W.Va.; and 10 siblings.