

Glen Bull

June 7, 1920 - July 5, 2010

KELLER -- Glen C. Bull, 90, went to be with the Lord on Monday, July 5, 2010.

Memorial service: 10 a.m. Friday at Lucas Funeral Home, 137 E. Hill St., Keller. Glen was born Jan. 6, 1920, in a log house near Garber, Mo., the son of George and Walsie Bull. He attended country schools for many years before graduating from Lansing High School in Kansas. He served his beloved country as a technician 4th grade in the 33rd Armored Regiment during World War II. Glen raised a son and daughter by operating street cars and as a control room supervisor for the Kaw Power Station in Kansas. Glen was also an accomplished carpenter and built his family's home and vacation cabin. He loved water skiing with his family and spent hours upon end pulling his children, grandchildren and their friends on Lake of the Ozarks. He married Shirley Hageman, his best friend and the love of his life, in 1972. After retiring, they lived on the lake until 1998 when they moved to Keller where they enjoyed life and family. He was preceded in death by his brother, Everett, and sister, Blanch. Survivors: Glen's memory will be cherished by his wife, Shirley; his brother, Frank (Lucille), and their children, Sandy Harris (Ed), Gary Bull, Randy Hageman (Sheri) and Gary Hageman (Pam); six grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.
