

Gloria Kubasiewicz

January 6, 1947 - August 13, 2009

Gloria was born January 6, 1947, in Detroit, Michigan, to James and Grace Walper Biggs. In lieu of flowers, friends who desire are respectfully invited to honor Gloria's memory with contributions in her name to the American Heart Association. Ms. Kubasiewicz was a former school teacher, stay at home mom and the office administrator and event planner for a Detroit non-profit organization. She moved to Trophy Club with her husband in 2007 to be close to their children and grandchildren. She was a active member of the trophy Club Women's Club. Survivors: She is survived by her son, Christopher Todd of Denver, Colorado; her daughter, Andrea K. Bollen and her son-in-law, Ed Bollen of Coppell; and her granddaughters, Elizabeth Bollen and Emily Bollen of Coppell. Also mourning her passing is her brother-in-law, Darwin, and sister-in-law, Karen Kubasiewicz of Maryland; and her cousin, Carolyn Pizzuti of Detroit, Michigan.

Tribute Wall

HL

“ I knew Gloria through Linda Conni, my next door neighbor. When she would visit, she always would stop and say hello even though a loud lawnmower might be running. I will always remember her engaging smile and and always pleasant personality.

Hunter Lawhon - August 23, 2009 at 01:52 PM