“ Y'Know growing up the youngest of 5 was never easy for me Dad. But I always knew that I was loved. Thanks for keeping me and Bubba from killing each other lol. i remember the last thing that you said to me. You said that you were proud of me and that I was ten times the man you would ever be. Well let me just say that is quite a legacy to live up to. but I will do my best to make you proud and with every song I write I think of you. To the greatest man I have ever known. “ One of the last memories dad and i talked about was when i was in 6th grade playing little league baseball and he was yelling at me to get a hit or i would be riding home in the trunk, then i called time out turned around and told him to shut up, which suprised me and him both.
